60 YEARS Okanagan COLLEGE EST. 1963

Message from OC Alumni Association

Hello OC alumni! We are thrilled to be celebrating Okanagan College's 60th anniversary with this publication and these profiles - which will soon be posted to the OC website - as a way of highlighting just some of the many incredible people who make up our community.

The Okanagan College Alumni Association (OCAA) organizes events and establishes programs to support graduates and students of Okanagan College and its predecessor, Okanagan University College. The OCAA provides opportunities for you - and all alumni - to connect with fellow grads, continue learning and to build strong networks throughout our communities.

Your story is truly our story. We hope you'll stay in touch and stay connected through our electronic newsletter, the Alumni Association Facebook page, the Alumni Association LinkedIn page and the online community. If you have an update or a story to share, we'd love to hear from you.

So stay connected with OCAA, and know that at Okanagan College - you are always welcome!

Message from the Board Chair and the President

Through 60 years, OC's alumni have been making a profound impact on our institution and the broader community. Our alumni are a vital thread in the fabric of Okanagan College's history, and they continue to shape our future. Their commitment to our values and their accomplishments in various fields serve as a testament to the quality of education our institution provides.

The influence of OC alumni extends far beyond our campuses. They are leaders, innovators, and change-makers in their respective professions, making a positive mark on our community. Many of them have established businesses in our region and beyond, contributed to innovations, and are involved in giving back to those in the communities where they live.

The support and engagement of OC alumni amplifies our mission, and their involvement in mentorship, internships and networking opportunities provide current students with invaluable resources for personal and professional growth.

To all Okanagan College alumni: Thank you. As we mark six decades of history at OC, we can't help but acknowledge how you continue to inspire us, and remind us of the transformative power of education. It is a privilege to celebrate you as part of our 60th anniversary - Our story is your story.

Aaron Gregory

Business Development Associate,
Energy & Environment, Calgary
Economic Development

OC Program of Study:
Bachelor of Business Administration,
2014–2019

While attaining his International Development Management diploma and Bachelor of Business Administration degree, Aaron was an active member, and later president, of Enactus Okanagan College, a non-profit organization that enables student leaders to positively impact local communities through social, economic and environmental projects. In 2017, he won the Kelowna and District Jaycees Building Leaders Worth Following Award, which recognizes students who have demonstrated a commitment to leadership in their community. Continuing to give back to his community today, Aaron, is an active board member with the Creston Valley Community Foundation, which has generated over $40 million dollars of investment into local businesses to help create and maintain local jobs and contribute to a prosperous Kootenay region. He is also an Okanagan College Foundation donor and board member with the Canadian Foundation for the Children of Haiti and started the Paige Whitelaw & Carlee De Boer Memorial Therapist Assistant Award to honour the passing of his friends.

Adam Relvas

Chef and Owner, Relvas Catering/
The Sandwich Company by Relvas Catering

OC Program of Study:
Culinary Arts (Red Seal), 2003–2005

Voted Top Chef in the North Okanagan by Okanagan Life Magazine in 2013, 2014 and 2015, and Chef of the Year in 2018 and 2022 by the Okanagan Chefs Association (OCA), Adam grew up in the South Okanagan and gained a passion for food through many food focused family events. Upon finishing school, Adam completed his apprenticeship at Ricardo's Mediterranean Kitchen in Lake Country and has since been able to work at some of the top hotels, wineries and restaurants in the valley before starting his own businesses, The Sandwich Company and Relvas Catering, the latter named a Top 3 catering company in the Central Okanagan in 2017 by Okanagan Life Magazine. Adam currently sits on the OCA board as the young chef director and is heavily involved in giving back to his community. In addition to helping raise funds for Ronald McDonald House and Kelowna General Hospital Foundation, he assisted the local food bank with its Bake the World a better place campaign, and for 12 years has helped a local church provide free meals on Christmas Day to those in need.

Aishwarya Tyagi

Civil Technologist, D.E. Pilling & Associates

OC Program of Study:
Civil Engineering Technology, 2016–2018

Aishwarya moved to Canada on her own in 2015 at the age of 18. She put herself through school by working two jobs while taking eight courses. Employed as a civil engineering technologist at D.E. Pilling & Associates and part-time volunteer youth worker at BGC Okanagan, Aishwarya is currently enrolled in the Civil Engineering Bachelor of Applied Science program at the University of British Columbia Okanagan. She obtained a 95 percent average in the Okanagan College to UBC Okanagan Civil Engineering Bridge program and, with a 93.4 percent average, was on the UBC Okanagan Dean's List in 2022. Aishwarya has logged 100 volunteer hours at BGC Okanagan and, in July 2023, competed in a powerlifting competition. In addition to power lifting, her hobbies include hiking, biking and poetry.

Ajowah Lindsay (AJ)

Supervisor, Paladin Security Group Ltd.

Amanda Wright

Financial Controller, Canadian Mental Health Association Kelowna Branch

OC Program of Study:
Bachelor of Business Administration, Accounting, 2011–2015

A chartered professional accountant, Amanda is proud to be giving back to her community as the financial controller for the Canadian Mental Health Association Kelowna Branch. With a strong focus on leadership through growth and coaching, she is committed to driving process improvement and system implementation. As a part of the Okanagan College Honours program, she completed the initial research study for the Scotiabank Centre for Non-profit Excellence, with a focus on sustainability gaps for social service organizations in the Central Okanagan. She has served as board member for United Way, Telemark Nordic Club and OGO Car Share, and taught as an accounting professor at Okanagan College. An avid skier and road cyclist, Amanda immigrated from Australia and has lived in Kelowna for 16 years.

Ben Klick

Artist/Musician, Klick Entertainment

OC Program of Study:
Audio Engineering and Music Production, 2014–2015

A touring artist, musician and songwriter, Ben Klick is a five-time British Columbia Country Music Association (BCCMA) winner. Named the 2022 BCCMA Interactive Artist of the Year, Klick picked up his first guitar at the age of four and has played in all types of venues and events from coffee shops to large Canadian outdoor festivals. In addition to volunteering his time to perform at Okanagan College and local charity events, Ben founded Music Fest MS, a charity fundraiser on behalf of the MS Society of Canada. In 2022, Ben won the Best of Kelowna Gold Award in the band/musician category. Currently living in Nashville, TN, for half of the year, Ben enjoys golfing, wakeboarding, spending time with family and snowboarding.

Cale Tiessen

Secondary School Teacher Candidate

OC Program of Study:
Recreation Vehicle Service Technician Apprenticeship (Red Seal), 2011–2014

Following high school graduation, Cale went to work at his father's company, KMS Tools, in Kamloops. There he managed the warehouse, eventually moving into the sales department. Cale moved on to pursue Red Seal certification through Okanagan College's Recreation Vehicle (RV) Technician Apprenticeship program where he earned a bursary award during his foundation year. Cale's teachers at Okanagan College, Jim Ingram, Adam Rosseel, and John Itterman, made a lasting impression, not only as teachers, but as great examples. From there, he began a career with Enterprise RV, working under the leadership of Darrin Grams, Ed Roelofs and Allan Stefanik. With the lessons learned in the RV industry, and newly married to his wife Naomi, the couple moved back to Kamloops where Cale managed his father's tool company. Under his leadership, the franchise broke record sales. After his father sold the company back to KMS Tools, Cale left the company to work for Mr. Mobile RV. After working through the pandemic on RVs, Cale returned to KMS Tools, but this time as a consultant to the management team. Acknowledging the impact of strong professional examples along the way, his journey has led him down a new learning path. With the Red Seal certification earned from Okanagan College, Cale applied for the Bachelor of Education in Trades and Technology program through Thompson Rivers University. Now, in School District 73 as a teacher, Cale is inspired to set his own example for the adults of tomorrow on what it means to be a leader in the community.

Choi Leong

2023 Graduate

OC Program of Study:
Bachelor of Business Administration, Data Science, 2019–2023

Quickly finding success in Okanagan College's Bachelor of Business Administration program, Choi credits OC's faculty and student community for creating an academically supportive environment that emphasizes the importance of connection. Since graduating in June 2023, he is focused on finding work in the investment banking industry and giving back to the community, whether it is working with students, supporting alumni, or working with various community organizations in Kelowna. Outside of classes, Choi was involved in the Okanagan College Student Investment Fund (OCSIF), which launched in 2022, and participated in the CFA Research Challenge, both of which give students experiential learning opportunities in the financial sector. He was also a student member of the College's Board of Governors during his final two years of studies.

Chris Braun

Chef, Erica Jane

OC Program of Study:
Culinary Arts (Red Seal), 2005–2008

Chris grew up on a hobby farm in the Okanagan, where producing heirloom fruits and vegetables gave him an early understanding and passion for farm-to-table dining. He began cooking at an early age with his grandmother, starting his first restaurant job at Kelowna's Earls on Top when he was just 14. Having apprenticed under Monika Lauterbacher at the Coast Capri Hotel, Chris worked his way through the Okanagan Valley honing his craft, along the way developing a passion for competition. His culinary journey included opening The Curious Café and working with Rod Butters at Raudz Creative Concepts. He recently opened Erica Jane, a legacy restaurant created by the late Reg Henry in memory of his daughter. Chris has received the Okanagan Chef's Association (OCA) President's Award, been voted Best Chef in the Okanagan by Now Magazine, and is in the Great Canadian Kitchen Party and Gold Medal Plates winner's circle. Active on the OCA board, he has spent time with the culinary team and volunteers for various charities throughout the region, including Chefs in the Classroom.

Christina Ferreira

Owner, Impact Events and Project Management Inc.

OC Program of Study:
Bachelor of Business Administration, Marketing, 1995–2000

After working in marketing and events for a small local non-profit, Christina founded Impact Events in 2008 and has since grown the business from a solo side business to a small agency with three employees. Her company's portfolio focuses on three major sectors including hospitality, tourism, non-profit/charity and new residential real estate. With more than 20 years of experience in event production, communications, public relations and marketing, Christina brings a depth of experience and industry awareness that enables a deep understanding of her clients' vision, goals and objectives. In addition to managing a varied event portfolio, Impact Events also owns five large community festival-style events. Impact Events has been recognized several times as a top event planning company in Kelowna. For the past 23 years, Christina—who has been recognized as a business leader and influencer—has been a volunteer board member for a variety of organizations, including the Okanagan College Alumni Association.

Cynthia Hernández Garcia

Spanish Lecturer, Okanagan College and University of British Columbia

OC Program of Study:
English as a Second Language, 2000–2003;
Bachelor of Business Administration, Hospitality & Tourism, 2003–2008;
Teaching English as a Second Language, 2012

Twenty-three years ago, Cynthia left her home country of Mexico to study English as a Second Language in Kelowna. During her time as a student, Cynthia worked as a teacher assistant and Spanish conversation coordinator in the Modern Languages Department. In 2008, Cynthia graduated from the Bachelor of Business Administration program with a minor in Hospitality and Tourism. From there she worked for approximately three years in the tourism industry and then returned to her passion, education, working in various departments at Okanagan College, but mainly in the International Education Department as an international student liaison. After completing her Teaching English as a Second Language certificate, she was inspired to pursue a master's degree in Applied Linguistics and eventually answered her calling to become a Spanish teacher. A founder of the Okanagan Mexican Folklore Dance Group, Cynthia volunteers her time promoting the richness of the Mexican culture through dance at different cultural events throughout the region.

Daniel Alfred

Senior Marketing Account Manager, Crew Marketing Partners

OC Program of Study:
Bachelor of Business Administration, Marketing, 2013–2016

With a key specialty in marketing for professional service, non-profit and food clients, Daniel builds marketing strategies for a wide range of clients and then oversees project rollout and execution from ideation to completion. His day-to-day role also includes managing a large team and leading client relationships and new business development. Prior to joining Crew, he worked in marketing and sales in the pet food industry, and as the business development director at Martketer Inc. When not marketing, Daniel spends time growing and managing his co-owned vineyard and wedding venue, 99 Rows, located in Lake Country. Through Enactus Okanagan College, he founded and developed the curriculum for Silver Surfers, a student-run social enterprise designed to reduce levels of isolation in seniors. An accomplished musician, Daniel volunteers throughout the community, including weekly through Trinity Church Kelowna as a drummer for weekend services. Having graduated with honours, his achievements include Okanagan College's Dean's List, securing first place at the Enactus Canada Regionals and receiving Duke of Edinburgh Bronze and Silver awards.

Dr. Darcie Weglo

Chiropractor/Owner, Creekside Dynamic Health

OC Program of Study:
Science University Studies, 2001–2003

Following studying sciences at Okanagan College, Darcie graduated with distinction from the University of British Columbia in Vancouver. She worked her final year in a master's program before being accepted to the prestigious Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College in Toronto. She completed her rigorous Doctor of Chiropractic degree with academic honours in 2011. Now owner of Creekside Dynamic Health, she has worked as an instructor at Okanagan Valley College of Massage Therapy, teaching therapeutic exercise and rehabilitation. Voted a local Top 40 under 40, Darcie sees patients of all ages, but has a particular interest in working with seniors to maintain athleticism through the ages, as well as with athletes in the areas of injury prevention, rehabilitation and performance enhancement.

Darrien McWatters

Operations Manager, Time Family of Wines Ltd.

OC Program of Study:
General Arts, 1994–1996

Managing production, planning and distribution for award-winning Time Family of Wines, Darrien has been working in the BC wine industry for over 25 years. Along with her sister, she was voted 2022's Top 10 Most Inspiring People in Wine by Wine Industry Network. An advocate for the 2SLGBTQAI+ community, Darrien has raised funds for organizations such as Etcetera Youth Kelowna, where those, and allies of those, ages 11 to 18 who are 2SLGBTQIA+ or questioning their gender can connect with supportive peers; RADAR Youth Penticton, which provides a safe, positive and social space for youth of all identities ages 12 to 18; and Friends of Dorothy Langley Youth Hub, an inclusive and safe space on the Lower Mainland for 2SLGBTQIA+ youth ages 12 to 24. Selected to participate in Hockey Canada's Equity Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) Task Force and BC Hockey's EDI working group, Darrien is highly active in BC Hockey, winning Summerland Minor hockey Coach of the Year (2012–13) and Penticton Minor Hockey Most Dedicated Official (2023). A former volunteer firefighter in Summerland (1998–2021), Darrien hopes to reach as many people as possible by sharing her personal story of discovery and transitioning from male to female as a transgender person. She sponsors the Summerland Secondary School and Pen-High Secondary "Team Trans Okanagan" bursary, an annual $500 award given to a graduating student who self-identifies as part of, or is a strong ally of, the 2SLGBTQAI+ community.

David Knapp

Director of National Business Development, CIBC

OC Program of Study:
Bachelor of Business Administration, 2001–2003

After ten years in the tourism industry, David embarked on a career in financial services while completing his Bachelor of Business Administration. Progressive roles followed, including personal banker, mortgage advisor, branch manager and business development manager. From there, opportunities to explore new roles in start-up business development and community foundation leadership added new perspectives and experiences. He later returned to the financial services industry where he is now the director of national business development at CIBC where he supports frontline teams and leaders from coast-to-coast. In June 2023, David completed a Master in Leadership from Royal Roads University. In addition to his role at CIBC, he is a term professor at Okanagan College, teaching in the business faculty. Over the years, David has volunteered on committees at United Way and Habitat for Humanity, and served as a board member for the Downtown Kelowna Association and Centre for Spiritual Living.

Debra Idzan

Former Library Clerk (retired), Okanagan College

OC Program of Study:
Health Care Assistant, 1988;
Associate of Arts Degree, 1997

Once her children were all in school, Debra attended Okanagan College as a mature student to build her skillset and prepare herself for future employment. Starting with the Health Care Assistant certificate program, she later returned to take the Associate of Arts degree program part-time while raising her family and working. After completing her program over the course of several years, three courses per semester, Debra graduated with honours. Her career began as a library page in the Okanagan College Library, eventually working her way up to library clerk, while also working part-time in the campus general office and bookstore. Throughout her time with the college, Debra worked as an exam invigilator, tutor and continuing studies teacher. Debra took pride in helping students, staff and the public. After 25 years, she retired but worked on-call intermittently for three more years. In addition to her professional life, Debra volunteered with several organizations including the Catholic Women's League, Salmon Arm Refugee Society, Salmon Arm Roots & Blues, and OC Student Services where she participated in a student outreach, college welcoming and fundraising events. She also engaged with the Shuswap Foundation to create a bursary award for OC students in trades and vocational programs in memory of her son, who was an OC Trades alumnus.

Denise Martell

Marketing Director, World Financial Group (WFG)

OC Program of Study:
Dental Office Administration, 1995;
Education Assistant, 2007

Denise is a financial professional and entrepreneur who has dedicated over 11 years to helping families achieve their goals and dreams. She found her passion for helping others while advocating for her son, realizing that a strong financial foundation, including access to the Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP), would enable him to lead a full inclusive life in the community. The recipient of the WFG Leadership Award and voted Top 40 over 40 by BDO LLP and the Kelowna Chamber of Commerce in 2023, Denise believes her personal experiences, post-secondary teaching, and education assistant backgrounds have been invaluable to her success. She is committed to promoting safe and secure futures for people with disabilities through financial education, estate planning and implementation of the RDSP program. Her extensive volunteerism has spanned many organizations throughout the Okanagan including City of Kelowna, Victory Life Church, Trinity Baptist Church, Level Up, PLAN Okanagan, Launch Okanagan, School District No. 23 and Sweet Smiles Society.

Domenic Rampone

Business Development Officer, West Manufacturing Ltd.

OC Program of Study:
Business Administration, 1974–1976

A business development officer for West Manufacturing Ltd., Domenic worked as a senior accountant for the Regional District of the Central Okanagan for 35 years. His business development consulting client list includes Mara Lumber Ltd., International Coliseums, Jealous Fruits and DKL Financial. Committed to making an impact in his community, Domenic has held numerous volunteer positions throughout the community, including vice president for the Kelowna Chamber of Commerce, where he was honoured as Director of the Year; treasurer for the Okanagan Heritage Museum; vice chair, Economic Development, for Westbank First Nation; and member of the board, City of Kelowna Agricultural Advisory Committee. In addition to his business background, Domenic has scouted for a number of junior hockey teams and is the local manager for Lakeland Super Camps.

Donna Mbamy-Conci

Registered Pharmacist, Juris Doctor Candidate

OC Program of Study:
Sciences, 2018–2019

Donna is a passionate advocate for justice and healthcare equality. From a young age, she and her father shared the dream of her pursuing a career as a lawyer. Later in life, she became inspired by her mother's work as a pharmacist. As she delved into the world of pharmaceuticals, she discovered the significance of patient advocacy and optimal healthcare. After completing one year of sciences at Okanagan College, she was accepted into Dalhousie University's College of Pharmacy program. A year into pharmacy school, Donna realized she needed a secondary platform to fight for justice and address healthcare inequalities, which also reflected the racial obstacles she and her family faced. She decided to pursue her original dream of becoming a lawyer while completing her pharmacy degree and enrolled in Dalhousie University's Schulich School of Law, where she successfully balanced the demands of studying both professions. Now, as a registered pharmacist and soon-to-be lawyer, she is eager to merge her knowledge and skills to seek justice for patients, healthcare providers, and the community at large.

Elizabeth Hernandez

Registered Psychiatric Nurse, Interior Health; Educator, Okanagan College

OC Program of Study:
General Arts, 2009–2011

When Elizabeth started her journey at Okanagan College in 2009, she was an adult upgrading student with a dream of changing the world for the better. Once she began college-level courses, Elizabeth was inspired by her Okanagan College psychology professors to pursue a career working with vulnerable populations. Her journey led to a diploma in psychiatric nursing, a Bachelor of Arts degree, and a Master of Arts in learning and technology. As a mental health nurse, Elizabeth has worked to improve the systems that support geriatric, medical and mental health patients across the Okanagan. Elizabeth has been recognized for her contributions to streamlining the healthcare system with a client and family-centred approach. Elizabeth has volunteered with the Special Olympics as a swimming coach and volunteer coordinator. She is active in her community's parenting support group. Elizabeth was honoured to return to Okanagan College, now in an educator role. She walks alongside students as they start their healthcare careers. She has used her creativity and passion to co-develop Okanagan College's Trauma Informed Practice micro-credential, as well as teach OC's first cohort of supportive care assistants. Elizabeth goes beyond traditional teaching methods to instill compassion, empathy and kindness in each program she teaches. She hopes to inspire others the way that her mentors and educators have inspired her.

Emily McKay

Owner, Most Wanted Luxury Resale

OC Program of Study:
Bachelor of Business Administration, Marketing, 2017–2021

Emily is a proud Okanagan College Bachelor of Business Administration graduate and Kelowna-based business owner, educator, volunteer and sustainability advocate. Her greatest passion is climate justice in the clothing industry, which she dedicates herself to through the recirculation of clothing at her business, Most Wanted Luxury Resale; advocacy and leadership work with the non-profit organization, Remake; and education through her social enterprise, Rising Education. Earning multiple bursaries and scholarships, Emily was on the Dean's List every semester for four years, eventually winning the marketing student award. She performs in Kelowna's thriving dance community, leads the fostering of an Okanagan vintage resale community, writes a personal blog, and is an avid traveller.

Erum Ahmad

After completing his undergraduate studies in political science in 2003, Richard moved to Halifax in 2005 to pursue his Master of Arts in the same discipline. His thesis was turned into a book, American Leadership and the Future of the Bush Doctrine. Following a few more years in Halifax, he and his wife, Tasha, moved back to Kelowna where Richard remains deeply engaged in politics, including currently serving as the board chair for the Liberal Party Electoral District Association in Kelowna. He spent 10 years with the Okanagan College Foundation, helping donors support student awards, bursaries and scholarships. In July 2023, he began a new role with the YMCA of Southern Interior BC, promoting his passion and advocacy in the belief that "fitness is for everybody." In addition to his political engagement, Richard has also been a volunteer with the Kelowna General Hospital Foundation's annual Gorges-Comeau Homebase Slo-Pitch tournament, which raises hundreds of thousands of dollars each year.

Rick Fischer

Owner and Holistic Health Consultant/ Practitioner/Instructor, Integrative Health Coaching

OC Program of Study:
Bachelor of Business Administration, 1996–1999

Since 2013, Rick has been bringing mineral-based health education to the world. His passionate early work in copper toxicity research, stemming from a personal tragedy, has since increased global awareness and serves as a primary educational resource today for thousands of patients, practitioners and health writers. Rick is also founder and instructor of the groundbreaking Mineral Mastery nutrition training program, which has helped support the training received today by countless wellness and nutrition professionals. In addition to working in clinical practice helping clients, Rick is frequently hired as a personal mentor to various health practitioners, including a large number of functional diagnostic nutritionists, functional medicine doctors, osteopaths and health coaches. Rick's work serves as a bridge between nutrition and both physical and mental health, and paves the way for a healthier world for future generations.

Rob Phare

Sales Manager (retired)

OC Program of Study:
Bachelor of Arts 1968–1969, 1972–1973

With over 22 years of experience in the Canadian information technology sector, Rob took on increasingly challenging sales and management positions while at ComputerLand, AST Research and Cisco Systems. Rob's achievements and awards include helping grow Cisco's regional business over 200 percent in two years, driving revenue in excess of $50 million annually, and receiving the 2000 Top Sales North America International Award. Retired at the age of 52, Rob has undertaken community service work including directorships with the Museum & Archives of Vernon, City of Vernon Board of Variance, Vernon Land Advisory Committee, North Okanagan Hospice Society and Okanagan College Foundation.

Shannon Peltier

Youth Worker, Osoyoos Indian Band

OC Program of Study:
Culinary Arts (Red Seal), 2004–2007;
Culinary Management, 2004–2006;
Indigenous Community Support Worker, 2019

With Cree and Metis (from Fort McMurray First Nation), and French and British ancestry, Shannon grew up in Anishinaabe territory and currently lives in Syilx territory. A Red Seal-certified cook, she previously owned and operated a sourdough bakery before switching careers to work as an Indigenous education advocate. After four years at Southern Okanagan Secondary School, she became a youth worker for the Osoyoos Indian Band (OIB). With a burning passion for Indigenous food sovereignty, Shannon is currently enrolled in a Master of Indigenous Education. She is also studying book one of the Paul Creek curriculum for the Nsyilxcen language and has been doing so for four years along with co-teaching the book during the past two summers for OIB youth. Her hope is to utilize her master's degree to help create a reconnection with traditional foods so that, once again, they become a staple in every Indigenous family's household. Shannon does the work that she does because of her Nohkoms' (Grandmothers') teaching that if you live on someone else's territory, it is your responsibility to learn about their language and culture as a sign of respect and to let their ancestors and the land know what your intentions are so you can walk forward in a positive way.
